ARTICLE XI - ANNUAL DUES AND SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS

11.1 Creation of the Lien and Personal Obligation of Dues. Each owner of any Lot by acceptance of a deed therefor or through other conveyance (such as a court decree), whether or not it shall be so expressed in any such deed or other conveyance, shall be deemed to covenant and agree to pay dues and assessments to the Association including but not limited to: (1) Annual Dues; and (2)

Special Assessments, both of which dues are to be fixed, established and collected from time to time as hereinafter provided. The Annual Dues and Special Assessments, together with interest thereon and costs of collection thereof as hereinafter provided, shall be a charge and lien on the land and shall be a continuing lien upon the property against which each such dues is made. Such lien shall be paramount and superior to any homestead or other exemption provided by law. Each such dues and assessments, together with such interest thereon and attorney fees and other costs of collection thereof, as hereafter provided, shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the owner of such Lot at the time when the dues or assessments fell due. The personal obligation for delinquent dues or assessments shall not pass to an owner's successor in title unless expressly assumed by them. However, the lien continues on the Lot against any new owner, until it is paid. Notice is hereby given that such continuing lien has attached as of the filing of this declaration.

11.2. Damage to the Roadways or Cart Paths by Owners. In the event any part of the subdivision roadways, cart paths, or related items is damaged or destroyed by an owner or by an Owner's Invitees, such owner does hereby authorize the Association, at its discretion, to repair said damages in a good workmanlike manner. The amount necessary for such repairs shall be promptly paid by such owner, upon demand, to the Association, and the Association may enforce collection of same in the same manner as provided elsewhere in these Bylaws for collection and enforcement of assessments. For the purpose of this Article, the term "Owner's Invitees" is intended to be interpreted broadly and shall include but not be limited to the guests of owners; the owners' employees, representatives, agents and/or contractors; and the guests of owners' family.

11.3. Basis of Annual Dues. The initial Annual Dues for maintenance shall be $1000 per Lot. The initial Annual Dues shall be paid upon the initial sale of a Lot by the Developer. Until the initial board of Directors is appointed by the Developer, Developer shall hold all annual dues on behalf of the Association. At each annual meeting of the Board, following the annual meeting of the Members, the amount of the Annual Dues shall be fixed for the next year, as appropriate to meet the present and anticipated needs of the Association, and may remain the same or be increased or decreased. Such Annual Dues may be used to build up a fund for repair and replacement of any improvements on the subdivision roads, cart paths or related matters as described herein.

11.4. Special Assessments. In addition to the Annual Dues, the Association may levy in any year a Special Assessment, applicable to that year only, for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the costs of any construction or reconstruction, unexpected repair or replacement of a described capital improvement upon the subdivision roads, cart paths and personal property related thereto. However, any such special assessment shall have the assent of two-thirds of the vote of the Members who are voting in person, by proxy, or via email at a meeting duly called for this purpose, written or electronic notice of which shall be sent to all Members at least thirty (30) days in advance and which shall set forth the purpose of the meeting, and subject to the quorum provisions set forth hereinabove.

11.5. Uniformity of Dues and Assessments. Every Annual Dues and Special Assessment established under this Article XI shall be on a per Lot basis for each Lot, regardless of the size or value of the Lot or any improvements upon the Lot.

11.6. Due Date of Annual Dues and Special Assessments. Payment of the Annual Dues (other than the initial Annual Dues) provided for herein shall be due on March 1 of each calendar year after such assessments are made.

Payment of the annual Special Assessments provided for herein shall be due thirty days after such assessments are made. For the initial partial year, there will be no Special Assessments.

11.7. Duties of the Board. With respect to Annual Dues and Special Assessments, the Board shall:

(a) Fix the Annual Dues and submit to the Members at the annual Members' meeting any proposed Special Assessment (subject to adjustment and approval) at such meeting, against all Lots then owned and occupied by the owners or Developer, and send written or electronic notice of such Annual Dues and Special Assessment thereof to all such owners, including owners of unoccupied Lots, at least fifteen (15) days before the due date; and

(b) Cause the Association to prepare and maintain a roster of Lots, the owners thereof, the assessments applicable thereto, if any, and the status of the payment thereof, which shall be kept in the office of the Association or its accountant and which shall be open to inspection by any owner; and

(c) Upon demand at any time, furnish to any owner liable for an assessment, a certificate in writing signed by an officer of the Association, setting forth whether said assessment has been paid. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of payment of any assessment therein stated to have been paid.

11.8. Effect of Non-Payment of Annual Dues or Special Assessments: The Personal Obligation of the Owner; the Lien; Remedies of the Association. If any Annual Dues or Special Assessments is not paid within thirty (30) days of the date when due (being a date specified in these Bylaws), then such assessment shall become delinquent and shall accrued interest at the rate of 15% per annum. The unpaid assessments and other items described above shall be a continuing lien on the property which shall bind such property in the hands of the then owner, his or her heirs, devisees, personal representatives, trustees, successors and assigns. The personal obligation of the then owner to pay such assessment, however, shall remain his or her personal obligation for the statutory period of five (5) years and shall not pass to his successors in title unless expressly assumed by them. However, the lien shall remain attached to the Lot and may be foreclosed thereon.

The Association may bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay any delinquent assessments, or may bring an action to foreclose the lien against the property, or both, and there shall be added to the amount of such assessment the costs of preparing and filing the lien (even if a lawsuit is not filed) and the petition if any action is filed (including costs and reasonable attorney fees), and, in the event a judgment is obtained, such judgment shall include interest on the assessment as above provided.

In addition to the above remedies, the Board may suspend the voting rights of any Owner for non-payment of assessments.

ARTICLE XII - AMENDMENTS

12.1. These Bylaws may be amended, at a regular or special meeting of the Board, by a vote of a majority of Board Members present.

12.2. In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation, if any, and these Bylaws, the Articles shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these Bylaws, the Declaration shall control.
